

FAIRFIELD MARSHAL SHOT, BEATEN

ROW PRECIPITATED AT LIQUOR HEARING

Decision Of Committee Chairman On Extra Time Allowance Arouses Verbal Battle—Temperance Head Heard

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A row was precipitated in the senate prohibition committee hearing today when Chairman Harrell, dry, served notice the prohibition investigation was to be arbitrarily closed with seven hours and thirteen minutes more of testimony.

The committee, he said, would make no further investigation of its own initiative, whereupon the wets contended they were being deprived of two and a half hours of the remaining time.

Harrell said the dries had done their share and would be given three hours additional. Despite the fact that the wets have two hours and thirty minutes remaining they announced they had closed their case, Harrell said, so they will be allowed only three hours in all.

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, wet, protested that this gave the dries 2 1/2 hours more than the wets but he was ruled down.

Reed at once protested that he was not on either side of the case. The crowd laughed.

"My statement may arouse the laughter of fanatics or fools," Reed said.

MOB HANGS ALLEGED SLAYER AFTER JURY INDICTMENT FAILS

White Man Rushed From Jail For Double Killing

GULFPORT, Miss., April 22.—Harold (Doc) Jackson, white, "Swamp Terror" was removed from the county jail at Poplarville, Miss., by a mob of twenty-five men today and hanged to the framework of a bridge near Picoayne, according to reports received here.

Jackson was held for action of the grand jury which Tuesday failed to indict him in connection with the murder of John A. McLeMore and William Egan, federal entomologists.

The mob gained entrance to the jail by using torches on the steel doors, according to reports. Rushing to Jackson's cell, they bound his hands and feet, tied a rope around his neck and rushed him to the bridge.

Jesse Favre, alleged moonshiner, sentenced to life imprisonment for the double murder, accused Jackson of the crime while on the stand.

JUDGE GARY FAVORS NATIONAL DRY VOTE

CHICAGO, April 22.—Judge E. E. Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, long looked upon as one of the nation's leading crusaders for temperance and prohibition, favors a national vote on the prohibition question.

"I believe the opinion of a majority of the people, intelligently and honestly obtained, should control in all such questions as modification of the prohibition laws," Gary said in an interview.

Gary was one of the organizers of the Citizens' Committee of 1,000 for law enforcement and as one of the foremost industrial chiefs of the nation, his espousal of the prohibition cause has been accepted as a great aid to the dry forces. He refused to indicate whether he has changed his ideas on the 18th amendment and the Volstead act.

GOVERNOR MOVES TO END TEXTILE STRIKE

PASSAIC, N. J., April 22.—The effect of the move of Governor A. Harry Moore to convene a meeting of strikers and mill owners in an effort to end the twelve weeks textile strike was in doubt today with participation of Albert Weisbord, strike organizer, questionable.

There was little doubt that Weisbord, youthful Harvard graduate held the strike reins and most observers believed his exclusion would nullify the effectiveness of the governor's meeting scheduled for tomorrow.

A blow was struck at the conference proposal by Samuel Untermyer of the strikers' counsel who issued a statement charging Gov. Moore with bad faith and advising the strikers not to take part in the meeting.

FIND DEAD BABY

WARREN, O., April 22.—The body of a three-weeks-old baby was found last night in Mosquito Creek here.

Coroner Henshaw said the body was found by boys had been in the stream 24 to 36 hours.

WILL CONSIDER FRENCH WAR DEBT

COMMISSION MEETS FRIDAY TO DISCUSS BERENGER PROGRAM

Italian Debt Plan Ratified By Senate Wednesday

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The American Debt Commission will be called to meet tomorrow to consider France's $4,377,000,000 debt to the United States, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced today.

French Ambassador Berenger is expected to appear before the committee to submit a proposal for funding the debt.

Mellon reiterated no agreement had been reached with Berenger and none could be accepted by the full American commission and the ambassador.

The secretary admitted that he and the ambassador in conferences had reached an understanding on what was desirable for both countries. The secretary said it was his hope to have the debt settlement for ratification by this congress.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Early ratification by the senate of the five remaining debt settlements, was certain today as the result of the decisive vote of fifty-four to thirty-three by which the $2,042,000 Italian debt funding plan was ratified late yesterday.

The Belgian debt funding agreement, as well as the proposed settlements with Roumania, Czechoslovakia, Estonia and Latvia, all of which have been approved by the house, were expected to be ratified by the senate with much less opposition than the Italian plan.

Ratification of the Italian settlement which provided comparatively lenient terms was regarded as assuring a similar agreement with France, the only major debtor nation which has not yet arranged a settlement. The Belgian debt was to be brought up for consideration today.

A meeting of the American debt funding commission will be called by secretary of the treasury Mellon within a few days to discuss settlement of the French $4,377,000,000 war obligation.

A commission of Jugo Slav statesmen is now in Washington waiting to discuss settlement of its country's $51,000,000 debt.

MILITARY LEADERS AROUSED BY ACTION

PEKING, April 22.—Manchurian military leaders are conferring today regarding means of controlling disorderly soldiers who entered Peking after the evacuation of the capital by Nationalist troops last week.

Some means must be found to reorganize the government since President Tuan Chi Jui's resignation and flight to Tien Tsin has left government affairs in chaos. It was probable some sort of government will be created and put into operation by the Manchurian commanders.

ELECTRIC COMPANY PROTESTS GAS RATE

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—Reports current that Clyde W. Osborn, grand dragon of the Ohio realm, Ku Klux Klan, would resign were confirmed today by Osborn.

Osborn said he would make public a statement when he tenders his resignation, which he said "will not mean that my connections with the Klan will be severed."

Osborn declined to discuss his reason for his contemplated action.

RELEASED BY COURT

FREMONT, O., April 22.—Edward Hawk, 40, father of two children, who pleaded guilty to attacking a thirteen-year-old girl, was released by Judge Overmyer until July 1, to arrange his business affairs.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH BODY BANISHES COLUMBUS PASTOR

CROTON, O., April 22.—Shorn of his clerical titles and banished from the ministry of the Congregational Church the Rev. John Allan Troke today had his choice of accepting or fighting his dismissal.

The Rev. Troke was formally unfrocked by the Central Ohio Association of Congregational Churches on recommendation of the association credentials committee which found him guilty of "untruthfulness and conduct unbecoming a pastor."

Whether the deposed minister will fight the ultimatum and attempt to regain his pastorate of the Eastwood Congregational Church, Columbus, was not known today.

The charge against the Rev. Troke was filed by the Rev. John Schmink of Columbus, who revealed that Troke, in obtaining a marriage license to wed Miss Miriam Hamstead, former Oberlin College co-ed, made an affidavit that he had never been married before.

Schmink disclosed Troke had been married twice, his first wife having died and his second having divorced him when he was assigned to a Springfield, Ohio, pastorate.

Troke made no attempt to appear before his accusers.

CONFERENCE TO AVERT BRITISH COAL STRIKE MAY 1 IS FAILURE

Proposed Mine Difficulties Would Paralyze Industry, Is Report—Owners Posting New Wage Scale

LONDON, April 22.—The joint conference of mine owners and miners seeking settlement of the dispute which threatens to paralyze British industry through a coal strike May 1, ended in "complete deadlock" today.

The coal owners immediately began posting notices of new wage scales. These scales are effective at various dates in the different districts beginning Friday.

"The operators stated that wages must be based on the economic capacity of the district affected and said they would not discuss any minimum percentage which would be applicable nationally," said A. J. Cook, militant miners Federation secretary.

Joint negotiations broke up last week when the mine owners insisted district wage agreements submitted for the national minimum base pay agreement has been maintained with the aid of government funds.

The owners argument was that the mines grouped in the various districts to not produce identical returns and therefore wages should be based on actual local conditions. "The owners seeking increase in the hours of labor and decreased wages. The miners are firm against both. Miners in event of a strike would make every effort to obtain the support of other unions."

TO ERECT REPLICA OF HARRISON HOME

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—A replica of the old home of President William Henry Harrison, near North Bend, Ohio, will be erected at Philadelphia, as Ohio's contribution to the Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial Exposition, scheduled to open June 1.

Plans for the building have been approved by the Ohio Commission in charge of plans for participating in the exposition and the state board of control, has authorized taking of bids for the work. It is estimated the building will cost between $15,000 and $20,000. It is planned to construct it in such a way that it can be taken down and returned to Ohio, probably to be put up again at the state fair grounds.

SEIZE MORPHINE

CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—When police arrested Richard Slater and William Capello, they seized morphine valued at $25,000.

TROOPS KEEP PEACE WHEN TRIAL OPENS

MADISONVILLE, Ky., April 22.—The clatter of cavalry and machine gun equipment sounded in the streets of Madisonville today as detachments of state troops reached here for the trial Friday of Columbus Hollis, Nathan Bard and Runyan Fleming, negroes charged with attacking Nellie Breithaupt, 16-year-old white girl.

Fifty-six enlisted men and seven officers from Hopkinsville, were the first troops to arrive. The Marion company was due later in the day. The three negroes will be brought here from Eddyville, where they were taken shortly after their arrest.

CRUSHED BY AUTO

STREUBENVILLE, O., April 22.—Crushed against a wall in an automobile accident, W. H. Whistler, 46, of Canton, was instantly killed here. Whistler parked his car on a steep grade but the brakes became released and the car started down hill. In the attempt to stop it, Whistler was crushed against a stone wall.

TWO GUN DESPERADO WILL HEAR VERDICT BEFORE NIGHTFALL

State Demands the Death Penalty For James Lyons

NORWALK, O., April 22.—Before nightfall a jury probably will have pronounced the fate of James Lyons, "two gun" farm boy tried for the murder of Frank McGrath, American Railway express company detective shot to death at the Lyons home in Havana, near here on February 18.

Both the state and the defense have rested their cases and today as court reconvened, the state resumed its closing argument, demanding the young desperado pay with his life for the death of McGrath.

Prosecutor Edgar Martin, closed for the state. Judge Carpenter, who presided, has prepared his charge to the jury and it is expected he will deliver it this afternoon.

In his opening statement, Assistant Prosecutor Frank Carpenter pleaded with the jury to find Lyons guilty without recommendation for mercy. "Jim Lyons is a criminal with a long and desperate record," Carpenter said. "His statements to you here today were worthless. He has proved himself a liar again and again and it is evident he will say anything at any time if it seems to fit his needs."

Martin O. Rettig, Lyons' attorney closed his case with a plea for acquittal, declaring "enough doubt had been cast on who actually killed McGrath to cause the jury to hesitate before decreeing the death penalty."

Because of Lyons' recent escape from the county jail and repeated statements by him that he could "walk from the jail any time he chose" Sheriff Ed Gregory today assigned a guard to watch over the youth until the jury's verdict is received.

Gregory said he believed Lyons would be sentenced to death and that the alleged killer will make an attempt to best the law by either ending his own life or making a break for liberty.

FINDS FORTUNE IN METAL POT ON FARM

ALBANY, Ga., April 22.—Pieze Riley, a negro farmer, is one member of his race that doesn't believe in luck.

While plowing his little farm near here a few days ago, Riley came upon a metal pot which contained three bars of gold on which was stamped "$50,000 each."

The negro continued his day's work, and made no mention of his discovery until J. M. Varner, a white contractor, called on him to deliver some supplies. Varner, when informed of the finding of the gold bars, sent them to Washington to be assayed.

Meanwhile Riley goes about his work, refusing to believe that he may inherit a fortune.

"That would be luck," he says. "I don't believe in it."

PREDICT HARRY DAVIS WILL OPPOSE WILLIS FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR OHIO SENATOR

CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—The wet and dry and the pro world court and anti-world court issues may be sharply drawn between Senator Frank B. Willis and former Governor Harry L. Davis in a fight for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator at the August primaries.

Willis is pro-court and ultra dry. Davis is anti-court and liberal wet. Although Davis, three time mayor of Cleveland and once Governor of Ohio has not yet announced his candidacy, it is known he has been considering making the race against Willis.

If Davis meets Willis in August

$3,000,000!

Miss Anne Nichols, of New York, who was made a millionaire by her play, "Abie's Irish Rose," filed suit for $3,000,000 against Universal Pictures Corporation, charging the film "The Cohens and the Kellys" infringes upon her production.

GROVE CITY MAYOR UTTERS DEFIANCE OF OUSTER ACTION

Declares Politics Incited Crabbe's Gambling Move

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—With Mayor Felton, of Grove City uttering defiance, ouster proceedings launched against Felton by Attorney General Crabbe, in connection with alleged gambling at Beulah Park race track were at a standstill today.

Replying to Crabbe's charge that he had failed to stop gambling at Beulah Park, Felton declared "politics actuated the attorney general and I will fight him until one of us loses."

Gov. Donahey is expected to act upon Crabbe's request for Felton's dismissal early next week. Felton's main defense, it is believed, will be the fact that a jury in Grove City recently discharged a man accused of race-track gambling.

Crabbe today in a telegram to Prosecutor Walter Booth, of Summit County, asked Booth to prevent gambling at the North Hampton track near Akron.

"Newspapers state you are awaiting definite instructions from me before proceeding against North Hampton," Crabbe wired. "Appeal to you to do everything within your power to enforce this anti-gambling law and urge that you notify the sheriff at once to do his duty."

MOTHER HOUSE TO BE READY AUGUST 1

FREMONT, O., April 22.—"Our Lady of the Pines" as the mother house and novitiate of the Sisters of Mercy of Toledo will be known, will be ready for occupancy Aug. 1, Morton S. Zollner, construction superintendent announced.

Dedication ceremonies will be held in August, after which the same home of the society in Toledo will be transferred to Fremont. It will be used as a retreat for retired sisters and a school for the novitiates.

AMUNDSEN ARRIVES AT STARTING POINT

KINGS BAY, SPITZBERGEN, April 22.—Captain Roald Amundsen and Lincoln Ellsworth have arrived here, the starting point of the north pole in the dirigible Norge. Crowds welcomed Amundsen and Ellsworth who came from Tromsø, Norway to make final preparations for the flight which may carry them across the pole to Point Barrow, Alaska.

PAIR ARRESTED FOR ATTACK ON OFFICER SENTENCED TO JAIL

Marshal Johnson In Hospital—Third Man Being Sought

Charged with assault and shooting with intent to kill, Emery Boggs, 19, and Willis Eaches, 22, both of Fairfield, were each fined $200 and costs and sentenced to six months in the County Jail by C. O. Longnecker, Osborn justice of the peace, when they pleaded guilty Thursday morning.

Arrest of the pair by Marshal William Schneider, Osborn, late Wednesday night followed an attack upon Guy Johnson, Fairfield marshal, as he was placing Eaches under arrest for a liquor law violation, in which the officer was overpowered, beaten over the head, back and arms with his blackjack and shot at five times with his own pistol.

The marshal is in Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, suffering from a slight bullet wound in his chest and severe body and head bruises from a blunt instrument. He was taken to the hospital by Morris and Sons, Osborn, undertakers and was in a semi-conscious condition Wednesday night.

Physicians at the hospital were to take an x-ray Thursday morning. He is said to have a good chance for recovery. The shooting occurred between 8:30 and 9 p. m., a square from the Fairfield skating rink.

Authorities say Marshal Johnson attempted to arrest Eaches when he was informed by villagers Eaches and two companions, all under influence of liquor, were disturbing the peace by boisterous conduct.

As he handcuffed Eaches, Boggs is said to have come to his companion's assistance and the two relieved the officer of his weapons, rained blows on his head and body and opened fire with his pistol as they fled in an automobile.

Dayton police and Marshal Schneider co-operated in a search for the pair. They were first thought to have headed toward Springfield but were later trailed to a Fairfield boarding house by the Osborn marshal.

Dayton police and authorities of nearby cities have been instructed to look for a third Fairfield man said to be involved in the brawl with Boggs and Eaches. Suspicion is directed at one man in particular, whose identity was not revealed.

Boggs and Eaches were to be brought to the Greene County Jail to begin sentence Thursday.

MEN MORE FEMININE, WOMEN MASCULINE, SAYS BEAUTY EXPERT

LOS ANGELES, April 22.—Men are becoming more feminine and women more masculine, according to Mrs. Ruth J. Maurer, head of a national chain of beauty schools.

"The modern barber shop has become a beauty shop for women, and men are spending $750,000,000 a year for beautification," she said in an interview here.

"It is the age impulse—the women smoking cigarettes because the men do, and the men using cold cream and cosmetics because the women do. Statistics show more than 500,000 men use cosmetics."

"The changes in our social and economic life are also responsible for this apparent transmutation of the sexes. Business now brings men and women together in a manner which has the effect of bringing out the latent 'other sex,' the effeminacy of man and the masculinity of women."

SENATE WILL BEGIN IMPEACHMENT MOVE

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The ritualistic ceremony whereby the senate resolves itself from a legislative body into a "high tribunal" of judges to hear the charges of impeachment against Federal Judge George W. English, of East St. Louis, Ill., was scheduled to begin at 2 p. m. today.

At that time the house board of managers or "prosecutors" was to appear before the senate and read the articles of impeachment.

She was a member of the M. E. Church of Bellbrook, where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock with interment in Bellbrook Cemetery.

AVIATORS IN MIMIC AIR WARFARE PASS OVER XENIA ON WAY

First actual offensive of the American "Blue" army was launched from Wilbur Wright field, early Thursday morning, where the annual air service maneuvers are being held, against the "Reds" the mythical foes who caught the "Blues" off guard Monday with their declaration of warfare.

Thirty-three planes flew to Circleville, where the operations concentrated and participated in a sham battle with the "enemy." The foreboding purr of the planes' motors was heard in Xenia when a number passed over the city enroute to the scene of "attack."

Lines of maneuvers worked out on the attack was made along the lines of maneuvers worked out on paper during the last three days at Wright field, as having occurred in the Cincinnati area. It was deemed inadvisable Wednesday night by Gen. James E. Fechet, commander of the "blue" forces to concentrate at this stage, such a large number of planes over Cincinnati. Circleville was then selected.

All four groups of the mobilized forces at Wright field, the bombardment, attack pursuit and observation, participated in the day's operations. The bombardment planes, nine in number, under command of Major L. H. Bererton, of Langley field, proceeded to Circleville on a route that carried them over Xenia.

Iron with Cod Liver Oil Makes Weak Child Strong

New Easy-to-Take Tablet Form Builds Him Up Quickly

When your child "outgrows his strength" or is weakened by illness he should be given remedies known as "food tonics" to rebuild solid flesh and produce rich red blood. For this purpose, physicians prescribe cod liver oil and iron.

Chemists now extract the vitamins and flesh-building elements from cod liver oil and throw the nasty, useless oil away. They combine these extracts with blood-building iron in easy-to-take tablet form.

To get the genuine, specific Burke's Cod Liver Oil and Iron Tablets at the drug store. You'll soon have cause to proud of the sturdy, energetic, well-nourished condition of your youngster.

THE REAL THING

APRIL presents no prettier picture than that of green fields, with rustic stiles between the openings of the hedges, where old footpaths go in and out, winding along until lost in the distance; with children scattered here and there, singly or in groups, just as the daisies are, all playing or gathering flowers."

So says someone in a book devoted to beautiful descriptions of the months of the year. There is much more than is here quoted about the month with which we are just now afflicted, but it is all to the same effect, and all equally true. It tells us about children chasing butterflies, or lying prone on the grass, or filling their pinafores with beautiful flowers, etc., etc.

We have no respect for the person who wrote these lines. He did not know our month of April. He knew the poet's April, which doesn't exist anywhere except in the poet's fancy. Flowers, pinafores, butterflies, children prone on the grass! We know them not in this month of April. Hail, sleet, snow, rain—this is our portion. Increasing cold, high winds, fair and warmer, rising temperature, falling temperature—these are our lot. At night we take things in from the box just outside the window to keep them from freezing; in the morning we put them out again. We drain the alcohol from the radiator of the old bus, and then worry all night for fear the contents will be one solid cake of ice in the morning.

As a month, April isn't much, but after all perhaps the year wouldn't be complete without it.

TRY PICKING DANDELIONS

Herewith is offered a mild suggestion to persons who, while enjoying a country outing, are unable to differentiate between the beauties of a protected field of wild flowers and the desolation of a field which has been stripped and left to weeds and grass by the wayside vandals. If they must pick something which does not belong to them, let them try picking dandelions.

The flower of that ubiquitous weed, we are told, though we haven't tried it, forms the base of a potent, pleasing and inspiring beverage. The leaves, we know by experience, can form one of the most wholesome and appetizing vegetable dishes known to modern cookery. It is the spinach with a kick.

And no one will begrudge their passing. Vandals may exercise their most destructive inclination against the dandelion. Tear them up, root and branch. Bedeck the automobile with them. Throw them into a boiling caldron. Serve them with oil or vinegar. Eat them alive. Do your worst to the dandelion. But let the wild flowers live.

LAUGHTER

A WELL KNOWN anecdote relates of a man who went to a physician for relief from melancholia. When the physician recommended that his patient go and see George L. Fox, world famous clown and originator of Humpty Dumpty, the patient said, "I am Fox." An equivalent story is told of the great clown Grimaldi and of Dominique, the jester to the French king.

This same role of sadness wearing the garb of wit and humor was played more recently by Mark Twain as he discloses himself in his own recently published biography. In his story of his own life this greatest of American humorists wrote:

"A myriad of men are born; they labor, sweat and struggle for bread; They squabble and scold and fight; they scramble for little mean advantages over each other; age creeps upon them; infirmities follow and humiliations bring down their pride and their vanities; those they love are taken from them, and the joy of life is turned to aching grief. The burden of pain, care and misery grows heavier year by year; at length ambition is dead, pride is dead, longing for release comes in their place. It comes at last—the only unpoisoned gift earth ever had for them, and they vanish from the world where they were of no consequence; where they achieved nothing; where they were a mistake and a failure and a foolishness; where they left no sign that they existed—a world which will lament them for a day and forget them forever. Then another myriad takes their place and copies all they did—to make room for another and another and a million other myriads, to follow the same arid path through the same desert and to accomplish what the first myriad and all the myriads that came after it accomplished—nothing!"

Mark Twain was an invalid during many years of his life and his thoughts were sorrowful and yet he continued to make the rest of the world laugh. Fox, Grimaldi and Dominique were sad men bearing more than their share of the world's troubles, yet they, like Mark Twain, made others laugh. There is no doubt that in making others laugh these immortal humorists made life more cheerful for themselves. Laughter is the only thing that is both contagious and healthful.

TOMORROW'S MENU

Remove roll-shades, brush them out of doors, and set aside till room is clean. Strip beds, and cover springs with a sheet after cleaning thoroughly. Now wipe ceiling and walls with clean cloths (use a broom covered with a bag for ceiling). Wash woodwork. Wash windows. Clean radiator. Renew or clean floor finish. Wash bureau mirror. Polish all furniture.

Replace rugs, wall pictures, small ornaments. Put up shades and clean curtains.

The above suggestions are for cleaning bedrooms. But the same general process is followed in cleaning any room in the house. In homes where soft or semi-soft coal has been used in the winter, it is wisest to clean the cellar before the first-floor rooms—otherwise the cellar dust may sift up through the floor again. (To remove dust from a cement cellar floor, scatter wet sawdust or damp bits of newspaper around and sweep up.)

THE SPRING CLEANING

Ideally, we housekeepers should keep our homes so clean that there is little need for the old-fashioned "Spring Housecleaning." In grandmother's day, when carpets were tacked down all year and taken up in April or May for a thorough beating, vigorous spring housecleaning was necessary. But with our modern vacuum cleaners, our bare polished floors, our labor-saving devices and well-rooted habits of sanitation, we of today take joy in having our homes "spick and span" always.

Yet often through ill health, or a lack of sufficient time, we find ourselves behind in our cleaning. We awake to the fact that we have been doing the heavy weekly cleaning in the rooms "on show"—and saving our strenuous work for the upstairs rooms. We realize that an old-fashioned housecleaning is indeed a necessity, in spite of all our strivings to keep our home ideally spotless.

When this is the case, let us go about cleaning a room as follows: Dust, wash if possible, and remove all small articles. Take movable furniture out of doors (except bedsteads, bureaus, etc. etc.). Take down pictures. Rattan rockers which you have long intended to repaint or restain should be attended to at this time. Rag rugs should be washed; other kinds of rugs beaten out of doors and then rolled up till the room is clean. Wash curtains.

with great enthusiasm in the settlements where hard cider, corn pone and "johnny" cakes were dispensed with liberal hands at Whig barbecues. Log cabins, indicative of the democratic antecedents of the general, were placed on wheels and trundled about by the Whigs at political rallies, speeches and conventions.

Sugarcreek Twp., then a strong Whig community, was busy with demonstrations. As the time neared for a great Whig demonstration in Dayton in 1840, influential politicians decided the township would evince its support of "Old Tip" in a unique manner.

They built a gigantic canoe, mounted it on wheels and decorated it to serve as a fitting emblem to represent Sugarcreek Twp. Whigs at the convention. When finished it was forty feet long, twenty-six inches deep and three feet wide. Craft was painted, red, white and blue and contained twenty-four seats.

The day before the convention it was placed on a large wagon and flag poles raised. Six horses were hitched to the wagon, each equipped with a full set of bells. Twenty four women were seated.

When the canoe passed the grand stand of General Harrison, who attended the convention, he waved his hand in recognition, and while shouts went up on all sides for "Old Tip," the girls sang Whig songs.

After the return home, the flags and banners, painted by Jesse Sanders, were stored in the loft at the home of Henry Harmon, later owned by Mrs. S. O. Hale, Sr. Canoe had served its purpose and was launched on the Little Miami River at Harner's mills, where it was used as a ferry for years.

Just as gay as could be, Lived a bird that was sought By the skillemaree; To catch him he tried Every way that he knew. For he thought he would taste Very nice in a stew.

Now all the day long The bird warbled his song Not dreaming of evil Or thinking of wrong; He twittered and sang On the branch of the tree With never a fear Of the skillemaree.

Now the skillemaree, Just as sly as could be, Crawled slowly one day To the foot of the tree And was ready to spring On that poor little bird When the strangest and loudest

Of noises was heard. Away out of reach Flew the bird with a screech, And his little heart fluttered Too frightened for speech, For the skillemaree Had to sneeze and he snore, And he couldn't catch birds With a horn for a nose.

SUPPOSED LEADERS ARE FINDING BUMPY TRACKS TO PENNANT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
NEW YORK, April 22.—After one week of surprising baseball, the standing in the major leagues presents a problem of what has happened to the world's champion Pittsburgh Pirates and the Philadelphia Athletics.

In response to an inquiry Bill McKelchale and Connie Mack, probably would reply:

"Nothing just give us time." With the exception of the Pirates the National League teams followed form in getting away for what has been the tightest race yet.

McGraw's Giants feasted on Brooklyn and Boston, while the Pirates have been forced to meet the stiff competition of the strong western clubs.

There doesn't seem to be any thing organically wrong with the Pittsburgh team and it will be recalled it is not a quick starting club like the Giants.

The Cincinnati Reds, getting the finest of pitching, loom now as more of a threat than they were considered in the pre-season dope and the St. Louis Cardinals are living up to expectations.

With the Athletics in seventh place and the Browns in the hole, the American League is all turned around.

The Yankees, the Tigers and the Indians in a tie for first place present an unusual situation. The Yankees and the Tigers look to be contenders, but no Indians are setting a pace that they can hardly expect to maintain.

Ty Cobb seems to have corrected any field weakness which has kept the club out of the running for several seasons, and if the pitchers hold up the club will have to be figured.

The Yankees, with the greatest bunch of hitters that could be desired, have turned from a possibility into the favorite for the pennant, with the Washington Senators becoming a very serious doubt.

HOLD DECLAMATION CONTEST AT CHURCH HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

Contest in "The Crusade for a Warless World," under the auspices of the Ohio Council of Churches, will be held at First Baptist Church, Xenia, Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. R. E. Brown, announced Thursday.

The contest is in line with the state-wide movement sponsored by the Ohio Council of Churches, to bring before the people the tragedy of war. Twenty-one articles on war have been written by statesmen and scholars, including President Coolidge. These will be declaimed by high school boys and girls of the state in the contest.

Most of the contests will be held over the state next Sunday night. Others will be held the following Sunday. A system of awards has been arranged the prize winner in the local contest to receive a bronze medal. The local contestant will compete in the county contest, the winner to receive a silver medal. The county winner will compete in the district contest and a gold medal will be awarded this winner. Winner in the state contest to be held the latter part of June will be awarded a college education and $1,000.

Judges of the Xenia contest will be H. C. Penldry, city superintendent of schools; Spencer Shank, principal of Central High School and Miss Margaret Wead, secretary of Greene County Red Cross.

The local contest is open to the public and anyone interested is urged to attend, without regard to church preference.

Gives Advice to Expectant Mothers

"I ADVISE all expectant mothers to use Mother's Friend," writes Mrs. Wesley Miller, Hudson, Mich. "I have had nine children. With my first three I suffered for 24 hours. Beginning with the fourth I used Mother's Friend and was sick only 15 minutes. Since then I have had five and was only sick about 10 minutes with each. Mother's Friend is the formula of an eminent physician and has been a positive blessing to thousands of expectant mothers for over three generations. Used daily, externally, it soothes the nerves and muscles as month follows month. Finally it makes childbirth a joy! The mothers who praise Mother's Friend the most are those who did not use it with their first baby but through its use with the second, were able to realize its almost unbelievable results. Mother's Friend is Mother's Friend—the same as used by our mothers and grandmothers—don't start using to-night—and meanwhile write Bradford Regulator Co., Dept. 24, Atlanta, Ga., for free valuable booklet 'Motherhood the Coming Baby' (sent in plain envelope). It tells how Mother's Friend can help you during pregnancy and at childbirth. This booklet also tells you many other things you want to know. 'Mother's Friend' is sold by all druggists everywhere.

SHEIK IN MAJORITY
AMONG CRIMINALS
IN PENITENTIARY

COLUMBUS, April 22.—"Little hair polished rats," is the new name Warden Preston E. Thomas, of Ohio Penitentiary, has applied to the prevalent type of young thug, stick-up man, or "cake-eater murderer."

"These days it's different," declares the Warden, who is one of the "oldtimers" in prison work. "The first thing these young fellows do is to get a gun. They intend to use it. They don't depend on their skill or their wits or their physical strength—not these little hair-polished rats."

This new type of criminal is predominating at all of the prisons in America, Warden Thomas believes. Hardness and lack of sympathy of these "dude killers" is almost unbelievable, according to the Ohio

Sore Throat Stopped
In 15 Minutes

A remarkable new prescription, for sore throat, known as Thoxine, is guaranteed to relieve the most irritated, painful throat in fifteen minutes or it costs you nothing. Works on different principle. Not a gargle. Thoxine goes direct to the condition that causes the sore throat or cough—kills the germs, stops fever, chilliness and achiness, and quickly drives it all out of the system. One swallow is all that's needed. Stops night coughing almost instantly. No chloroform or other harmful drugs. 35c, 60c and $1.00.—All druggists. —Adv.

DEAF HEAR

Amazing Invention Brings Immediate Relief To Those Who Are Deaf

A wonderful invention which enables the hard of hearing to hear all sounds as clearly and distinctly as a child, has been perfected by the Dictograph Products Corporation, Suite 2946, 14 East Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill. There is no waiting, no delay, no danger, but quick, positive, instantaneous results—you hear instantly. So positive are the makers that everyone who is hard of hearing will be amazed and delighted with this remarkable invention. IS EVERY DAY A
BACKACHE DAY?

XENIA FOLKS HAVE FOUND THE CAUSE AND CORRECTED IT

Is your back lame and aching? Are you tortured with sharp, rheumatic pains; miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities? No wonder then, you feel worn-out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? You should! Weak kidneys cause just such troubles. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Here's a Xenia case.

Frank Kerns, 431 W. Market St., says: "A constant, aching across my kidneys made me miserable. Mornings the muscles of my back were stiff and sore and I couldn't stir about easily until I had limbered up. My kidneys were disordered and I had to pass the secretions too often. I was also troubled with headaches and dizzy spells. But the use of Doan's Pills brought the desired relief."

warden. "They are an enigma to prison officials and older criminals alike," he says.

"The old-time safe blower or burglar," explains the warden, "took the greatest pains not to have a dangerous weapon on his person. He didn't want to kill. He didn't have a gun or even a large knife. He wanted to be able to prove to the police, if he was caught that he had not intended to kill."

This new type of young criminal, however, is described by Warden Thomas, as "young men who have lost their 'feelers,' and as being 'without mercy, pity, and sympathy; without love, fair play or any of the other attributes that come from emotion.'"

Warden Thomas is not of the opinion that these young bandits learned their "trade" as soldiers in the late war. On the contrary, he finds that "seventy young men who entered prison between the ages of 15 and 18 years weren't soldiers during the war; they didn't learn banditry, stealing and killing over in France."

Asked the direct question: "What is the matter with most of them?" Warden Thomas replied that very few of the never had any home life whatsoever.

"They're damned young" is another succinct reason given by the warden for the waywardness of the "hair-polished rats."

Stop Losing Flesh
And Grow Fat Quick

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on fifteen pounds in five weeks and now feels fine. We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing flesh producing vitamins, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person don't gain at least five pounds in thirty days your druggist is authorized to give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Sayre & Hemphill or any druggist. —Adv.

genbeck-Wallace is known universally as the "Highest Class Circus on Earth."

During the past week advance representatives have been heralding the appearance of the circus in Dayton.

Advance men say the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus this year has more novelties and features than ever before, and the exhibition will mark an epoch in trained animal acts and equestrian acts. A menagerie containing practically a specimen of every living animal today is being carried, while the performance is said to be the last word in gorgeous costumes, pretty ladies, and beautiful horses.

During the winter months special attention was paid to the wild animal portion of the program. A corps of trainers, including Clyde Beatty, the youthful American, and Bob McPherson, noted European subjugator, worked extra hours at the Peru, Indiana, winter quarters instilling new tricks, feats and stunts into the savage jungle beasts.

In the rings and on the stage, as well as the hippodrome track there will be features of international reputation, including the Orrin Davenport Family of equestrians and the War-Kimball Troupe of daring aerialists. Noted clowns, such as the Art Borella

C. A. DEVOE ELECTED
SUPERINTENDENT OF
JEFFERSON SCHOOL

C. A. Devoe, for the past two years, superintendent of Lees-creek Centralized School, Clinton County and former Greene County district superintendent, was elected superintendent of Bowersville Centralized School, Jefferson Twp., Wednesday night.

He was elected to the local position by the Jefferson Twp. Board of Education to succeed P. C. Milnor, who had not applied for the position for the coming year. His reasons were not announced.

Superintendent Devoe was district school superintendent in Greene County seven years. He will assume the Bowersville superintendency the first of the next school year and will move to Bowersville in the near future. Superintendent Devoe will receive a degree from Wilmington College this Spring, in advanced education.

A. Y. D.

Motorism is more or less agog over one manufacturer's innovation in quoting prices a. y. d. instead of f. o. b.—the new symbol meaning "at your door." In short, delivered prices instead of prices at the factory plus freight and other charges.

Stock insurance has followed the a. y. d. system for many decades. A stock insurance policy costs so much delivered; you pay your premium and that's an end on't. It's the "at cost" tribe which quotes its policy prices on the f. o. b. basis. So much for the policy; when the bust comes you add on the freight and other charges and tot up to discover just what "at cost" does mean.

To buy an automobile for $1,000 f. o. b. and find it costs $200 more to get it to your door is not as bad as buying a policy f. o. b. and finding that the "factory" is a scattered list of subscribers who decline to make delivery without litigation. The moral is: Insure through representative local agents and get stock insurance a. y. d.

SPOILED CHILD MAKES NEUROTIC ADULT MEDICAL MEETING TOLD

DALLAS, Tex., April 21.—Hys-indulgence of fond parents in allowing the youngster to desire its teria in adults is largely due to the goal by "throwing a tantrum", Dr. M. S. Gregory told his associates in the seventy-seventh annual convention of the American Medical Association here today.

"If the baby gets what it wants by a tantrum it will react when grown up in the same manner—a condition the individual cannot control," Dr. Gregory said. "If the child has been trained to meet reality, then as an adult, he or she will meet reality and remain well."

Pointed statements from other speakers on the opening program of eight scientific sections of the association which got under way today, bore out the oft-repeated admonition—see the physician first.

Infections of the eyes oftentimes are the "kickbacks" from infections and diseased sections elsewhere on the body, eye specialists pointed out. Irritation of an infected area drives the harmful germ into the blood and it is carried to the eye tissues.

Injection of chemicals and dye substances directly into the veins to combat boils, abscesses and similar growths has benefited hundreds of patients, Dr. Hugh Young of Baltimore told the surgical section.

High blood pressure may be successfully combated by the injection of a liver extract prepared from fresh liver tissues and purified according to Dr. A. A. James and associates in the Pharmacology and Therapeutics division. On the other hand, Dr. Ralph Majors of Kansas City describes the use of a substance called "guanidine" as an elevator of blood pressure. While yet in the comparative experimental stage, Dr. Majors was confident that the treatment would tend to ward off senility's effects.

The high mortality rate among cancer sufferers results largely from procrastination, according to Dr. George B. Eusterman of the Mayo Clinic. More than fifty percent of the cancer fatalities result because the sufferer has waited too long to consult a physician and to undergo an operation, Eusterman declared. He also pointed out that sixty-five percent of the cancer patients are between 50 and 75 years old and that there are four men to one woman who suffer from cancer of the stomach.

MRS. COOLIDGE BUSY REARRANGING WHITE HOUSE FURNISHINGS

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Slowly, and with care and deliberation, Mrs. Coolidge is rearranging the White House interior to conform to the aesthetic standards of modern palatial residences.

The conglomeration of furniture, accumulated through numerous regimens and marked with the individuality of many purchasers, has long been a source of concern to White House residents. Last year a group of interior decorators characterized the arrangement of the White House as "hideous" and recommended scrapping of half of the furniture.

Shortly afterward Congress passed a resolution, probably instigated at the White House, allowing the President to accept furniture for the Executive mansion. Although Mrs. Coolidge has not yet taken advantage of this privilege she is expected to as soon as a definite plan can be laid down for refurnishing the house.

Every day in the meanwhile some change is made in the arrangement of furniture and ever so often, some cumbersome piece of furniture incongruous with the ensemble disappears into the White House basement.

Rumors that Mrs. Coolidge will issue a call for period furniture to furnish the White House have been denied. Mrs. Coolidge has no desire to completely renovate the Executive Mansion, it was said; she merely wishes to rearrange the interior so as to make it more pleasing to the eye. There is too much furniture in the rooms now, it was explained. However, after the useless and ugly furnishings have been relegated Mrs. Coolidge taken the summer before, at a horse show held by some army people. I had ridden in it. The picture showed me in riding togs, rather informal ones, as it had been a hot day. Some newspaper camera man had taken it, and run it, but with a mistake in my name—he had called me "Miss Nancy Larrabee" instead of Mrs.

That picture was Jim's favorite one of me, as it happened. He had taken it with him to the Philippines—that is, I supposed he had. And here was this nice stranger, who had been carrying it around with him too!

"I've always liked this so much that I felt as if I knew you," he told me. "So you're the original Nancy Larrabee. Well, the original is an improvement on the photograph."

"But that doesn't tell me who you are," I protested. "Nicholas Wayne—just Nick to you, I hope," he answered. "Just Nick—and just Nancy," I laughed.

XXV. THE BRIDGE

You have seen pictures of wrestlers doing the bridge, with their bodies raised off the mat, supported by their feet and head. This exercise will put you into a similar position.

Position: Lying on back, feet flexed, with heels near seat. Arms folded across chest.

Exercise: Raise body off floor, forming a bridge, resting on feet and top of head or shoulders.

Your lower back will form a perfect arch if this is performed correctly. On each attempt to raise yourself, try to go up and back a little farther, until you are resting on the top of your head. The first time you will probably only get up upon the top of your back, but eventually you should be able to be resting on the soles of your feet and the top of your head.

ROW PRECIPITATED AT LIQUOR HEARING

Decision Of Committee Chairman On Extra Time Allowance Arouses Verbal Battle—Temperance Head Heard

WASHINGTON, April 22.—A row was precipitated in the senate prohibition committee hearing today when Chairman Harrell, dry, served notice the prohibition investigation was to be arbitrarily closed with seven hours and thirteen minutes more of testimony.

The committee, he said, would make no further investigation of its own initiative, whereupon the wets contended they were being deprived of two and a half hours of the remaining time.

Harrell said the drys had done hour and thirteen minutes and would be given three hours additional. Despite the fact that the wets have two hours and thirty minutes remaining they announced they had closed their case. Harrell said, so they will be allowed only three hours in all.

Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, wet, protested that this gave the drys 2 1/2 hours more than the wets but he was ruled down.

Reed at once protested that he was not on either side of the case. The crowd laughed.

"My statement may arouse the laughter of fanatics or fools," Reed

MOB HANGS ALLEGED SLAYER AFTER JURY INDICTMENT FAILS

White Man Rushed From Jail For Double Killing

GULFPORT, Miss., April 22.—Harold (Doc) Jackson, white, "Swamp Terror" was removed from the county jail at Poplarville, Miss., by a mob of twenty-five men today and hanged to the framework of a bridge near Piccadilly, according to reports received here.

Jackson was held for action of the grand jury which Tuesday failed to indict him in connection with the murder of John A. McLeMORE and William Egan, federal entomologists.

The mob gained entrance to the jail by using torches on the steel doors, according to reports. Rushing to Jackson's cell, they bound his hands and feet, tied a rope around his neck and rushed him to the bridge.

Jesse Favre, alleged moonshiner, sentenced to life imprisonment for the double murder, accused Jackson of the crime while on the stand.

JUDGE GARY FAVORS NATIONAL DRY VOTE

CHICAGO, April 22.—Judge E. E. Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, long looked upon as one of the nation's leading crusaders for temperance and prohibition, favors a national vote on the prohibition question.

"I believe the opinion of a majority of the people, intelligently and honestly obtained, should control in all such questions as modification of the prohibition laws," Gary said in an interview.

Gary was one of the organizers of the Citizens' Committee of 1,000 for law enforcement and as one of the foremost industrial chiefs of the nation, his espousal of the prohibition cause has been accepted as a great aid to the dry forces. He refused to indicate whether he has changed his ideas on the 18th amendment and the Volstead act.

GOVERNOR MOVES TO END TEXTILE STRIKE

PASSAIC, N. J., April 22.—The effect of the move of Governor A. Harry Moore to convene a meeting of strikers and mill owners in an effort to end the twelve weeks textile strike was in doubt today with participation of Albert Weisbord, strike organizer, questionable.

There was little doubt that Weisbord, youthful Harvard graduate held the strike reins and most observers believed his exclusion would nullify the effectiveness of the governor's meeting scheduled for tomorrow.

A blow was struck at the conference proposal by Samuel Untermyer of the strikers' counsel who issued a statement charging Gov. Moore with bad faith and advising the strikers not to take part in the meeting.

COMMISSION MEETS FRIDAY TO DISCUSS BERENGER PROGRAM

Italian Debt Plan Ratified By Senate Wednesday

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The American Debt Commission will be called to meet tomorrow to consider France's $4,377,000,000 debt to the United States, Secretary of the Treasury Mellon announced.

French Ambassador Berenger is expected to appear before the committee to submit a proposal for funding the debt.

Mellon reiterated no agreement had been reached with Berenger and none could be accepted by the full American commission and the ambassador.

The secretary admitted that he and the ambassador in conferences had reached an understanding on what was desirable for both countries. The secretary said it was his hope to have the debt settlement for ratification by this congress.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Early ratification by the senate of the five remaining debt settlements, was certain today as the result of the decisive vote of fifty-four to thirty-three by which the $2,042,000 Italian debt funding plan was ratified late yesterday.

The Belgian debt funding agreement, as well as the proposed settlements with Roumania, Czechoslovakia, Estonia and Latvia, all of which have been approved by the house, were expected to be ratified by the senate with much less opposition than the Italian plan.

Ratification of the Italian settlement which provided comparatively lenient terms was regarded as assuring a similar agreement with France, the only major debtor nation which has not yet arranged a settlement. The Belgian debt was to be brought up for consideration today.

A meeting of the American debt funding commission will be called by secretary of the treasury Mellon within a few days to discuss settlement of the French $4,377,000,000 war obligation.

A commission of Jugo Slav statesmen is now in Washington waiting to discuss settlement of its country's $51,000,000 debt.

MILITARY LEADERS AROUSED BY ACTION

PEKING, April 22.—Manchurian military leaders were conferring today regarding means of controlling disorderly soldiers who entered Peking after the evacuation of the capital by Nationalist troops last week.

Some means must be found to re-organize the government since President Tuan Chi Jui's resignation and flight to Tien Tsin has left government affairs in chaos. It was probable some sort of government will be created and put into operation by the Manchurian commanders.

ELECTRIC COMPANY PROTESTS GAS RATE

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—The Dayton Power and Light Company has protested against the ordinance passed by the Dayton city council providing new rates for natural gas in Dayton beginning April 1, according to a letter received by the utilities commission today.

At a meeting of the company's board of directors, a resolution directing the secretary of the company to file a formal protest with the Utilities Commission was authorized.

CONFERENCE TO AVERT BRITISH COAL STRIKE MAY 1 IS FAILURE

Proposed Mine Difficulties Would Paralyze Industry, Is Report—Owners Posting New Wage Scale

LONDON, April 22.—The joint conference of mine owners and miners seeking settlement of the dispute which threatens to paralyze British industry through a coal strike May 1, ended in "complete deadlock" today.

The coal owners immediately began posting notices of new wage scales. These scales are effective at various dates in the different districts beginning Friday.

"The operators stated that wages must be based on the economic capacity of the district affected and said they would not discuss any minimum percentage which would be applicable nationally," said A. J. Cook, militant miners' federation secretary.

Joint negotiations broke up last week when the mine owners insisted district wage agreements submitted for the national minimum base pay agreement has been maintained with the aid of government funds.

The owners' argument was that the mines grouped in the various districts to not produce identical returns and therefore wages should be based on actual local conditions. "The owners seeking increase in the hours of labor and decreased wages. The miners are firm against both. Miners in event of a strike would make every effort to obtain the support of other unions."

TO ERECT REPLICA OF HARRISON HOME

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—A replica of the old home of President William Henry Harrison, near North Bend, Ohio, will be erected at Philadelphia, as Ohio's contribution to the Philadelphia Sesqui-Centennial Exposition, scheduled to open June 1.

Plans for the building have been approved by the Ohio Commission in charge of plans for participating in the exposition and the state board of control, has authorized taking of bids for the work. It is estimated the building will cost between $15,000 and $20,000. It is planned to construct it in such a way that it can be taken down and returned to Ohio, probably to be put up again at the state fair grounds.

TROOPS KEEP PEACE WHEN TRIAL OPENS

MADISONVILLE, Ky., April 22.—The clatter of cavalry and machine gun equipment sounded in the streets of Madisonville today as detachments of state troops reached here for the trial Friday of Columbus Hollis, Nathan Bard and Runyan Fleming, negroes charged with attacking Nollie Breithaupt, 16-year-old white girl. Fifty-six enlisted men and seven officers from Hopkinsville, were the first troops to arrive. The Marion company was due later in the day. The three negroes will be brought here from Eddyville, where they were taken shortly after their arrest.

CRUSHED BY AUTO

STUBENVILLE, O., April 22.—Crushed against a wall in an automobile accident, W. H. Whistler, 46, of Canton, was instantly killed here. Whistler parked his car on a steep grade but the brakes became released and the car started down hill. In the attempt to stop it, Whistler was crushed against a stone wall.

TWO GUN DESPERADO WILL HEAR VERDICT BEFORE NIGHTFALL

State Demands the Death Penalty For James Lyons

NORWALK, O., April 22.—Before nightfall a jury probably will have pronounced the fate of James Lyons, "two gun" farm boy tried for the murder of Frank McGrath, American Railway express company detective shot to death at the Lyons home in Havana, near here on February 18.

Both the state and the defense have rested their cases and today as court reconvened, the state resumed its closing argument, demanding the young desperado pay with his life for the death of McGrath.

Prosecutor Edgar Martin, closed for the state. Judge Carpenter, who presided, has prepared his charge to the jury and it is expected he will deliver it this afternoon.

In his opening statement, Assistant Prosecutor Frank Carpenter pleaded with the jury to find Lyons guilty without recommendation for mercy. "Jim Lyons is a criminal with a long and desperate record," Carpenter said. "His statements to you here today were worthless. He has proved himself a liar again and again and it is evident he will say anything at any time if it seems to fit his needs."

Melvin O. Rettig, Lyons' attorney closed his case with a plea for acquittal, declaring "enough doubt had been cast on who actually killed McGrath to cause the jury to hesitate before decreeing the death penalty."

Because of Lyons' recent escape from the county jail and repeated statements by him that he could "walk from the jail any time he chose" Sheriff Ed Gregory today assigned a guard to watch over the youth until the jury's verdict is received.

Gregory said he believed Lyons would be sentenced to death and that the alleged killer will make an attempt to best the law by either ending his own life or making a break for liberty.

FINDS FORTUNE IN METAL POT ON FARM

ALBANY, Ga., April 22.—Pleze Riley, a negro farmer, is one member of his race that doesn't believe in luck.

While plowing his little farm near here a few days ago, Riley came up on a metal pot which contained three bars of gold on which was stamped "$50,000 each."

The negro continued his day's work, and made no mention of his discovery until J. M. Varner, a white contractor, called on him to deliver some supplies. Varner, when informed of the finding of the gold bars, sent them to Washington to be assayed.

Meanwhile Riley goes about his work, refusing to believe that he may inherit a fortune.

"That would be luck," he says. "I don't believe in it."

PREDICT HARRY DAVIS WILL OPPOSE WILLIS FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOUR OHIO SENATOR

By United Press
CLEVELAND, O., April 22.—The wet and dry and the pro world court and anti-world court issues may be sharply drawn before Senator Frank B. Willis and former Governor Harry L. Davis in a fight for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator at the August primaries.

Willis is pro-court and ultra dry. Davis is anti-court and liberal wet. Although Davis, three time mayor of Cleveland and once Governor of Ohio has not yet announced his candidacy, it is known he has been considering making the race against Willis.

GROVE CITY MAYOR UTTERS DEFIANCE OF OUSTER ACTION

Declares Politics Incited Crabbe's Gambling Move

COLUMBUS, O., April 22.—With Mayor Felton, of Grove City uttering defiance, ouster proceedings launched against Felton by Attorney General Crabbe, in connection with alleged gambling at Beniah Park Race track were at a standstill today.

Rejoicing to Crabbe's charge that he had failed to stop gambling at Beniah Park, Felton declared "politics actuated the attorney general and I will fight him until one or us loses."

Gov. Donahey is expected to act upon Crabbe's request for Felton's dismissal early next week. Felton's main defense, it was believed, will be the fact that a jury in Grove City recently discharged a man accused of race-track gambling.

Crabbe today in a telegram to Prosecutor Walter Booth, of Summit County, asked Booth to prevent gambling at the North Hampton track near Akron.

Newspapers state you are awaiting definite instructions from me before proceeding against North Hampton," Crabbe wired. "Appeal to you to do everything within your power to enforce this anti-gambling law and urge that you notify the sheriff at once to do his duty."

MOTHER HOUSE TO BE READY AUGUST 1

FREMONT, O., April 22.—"Our Lady of the Pines" as the mother house and novitiate of the Sisters of Mercy of Toledo will be known, will be ready for occupancy Aug. 1, Morton S. Zoeller, construction superintendent announced.

Dedication ceremonies will be held in August, after which the same home of the society in Toledo will be transferred to Fremont. It will be used as a retreat for retired sisters and a school for the novitiates.

PAIR ARRESTED FOR ATTACK ON OFFICER SENTENCED TO JAIL

Marshal Johnson In Hospital—Third Man Being Sought

Charged with assault and shooting with intent to kill, Emery Boggs, 19, and Willis Eaches, 22, both of Fairfield, were each fined $200 and costs and sentenced to six months in the County Jail by C. O. Longnecker, Osborn justice of the peace, when they pleaded guilty Thursday morning.

Arrest of the pair by Marshal William Schneider, Osborn, late Wednesday night followed an attack upon Guy Johnson, Fairfield marshal, as he was placing Eaches under arrest for a liquor law violation, in which the officer was overpowered, beaten over the head, back and arms with his blackjack and shot at five times with his own pistol.

The marshal is in Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, suffering from a slight bullet wound in his chest and severe body and head bruises from a blunt instrument. He was taken to the hospital by Morris and Sons, Osborn, undertakers and was in a semi-conscious condition Wednesday night.

Physicians at the hospital were to take an x-ray Thursday morning. He is said to have a good chance for recovery. The shooting occurred between 8:30 and 9 p. m., a square from the Fairfield skating rink.

Authorities say Marshal Johnson attempted to arrest Eaches when he was informed by villagers Eaches and two companions, all under influence of liquor, were disturbing the peace by boisterous conduct.

As he handcuffed Eaches, Boggs is said to have come to his companion's assistance and the two relieved the officer of his weapons, rained blows on his head and body and opened fire with his pistol as they fled in an automobile.

Dayton police and Marshal Schneider co-operated in a search for the pair. They were first thought to have headed toward Springfield but were later trailed to a Fairfield boarding house by the Osborn marshal.

Dayton police and authorities of nearby cities have been instructed to look for a third Fairfield man said to be involved in the brawl with Boggs and Eaches. Suspicion is directed at one man in particular, whose identity was not revealed.

Boggs and Eaches were to be brought to the Greene County Jail to begin sentence Thursday.

MEN MORE FEMININE, WOMEN MASCULINE, SAYS BEAUTY EXPERT

LOS ANGELES, April 22.—Men are becoming more feminine and women more masculine, according to Mrs. Ruth J. Maurer, head of a national chain of beauty schools.

"The modern barber shop has become a beauty shop for women, and men are spending $750,000,000 a year for beautification," she said in an interview here.

"It is the age impulse—the women smoking cigarettes because the men do, and the men using cold cream and cosmetics because the women do. Statistics show more than 500,000 men use cosmetics."

"The changes in our social and economic life are also responsible for this apparent transmutation of the sexes. Business now brings men and women together in a manner which has the effect of bringing out the latent 'other sex,' the effeminacy of man and the masculinity of women."

SENATE WILL BEGIN IMPEACHMENT MOVE

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The ritualistic ceremony whereby the senate resolves itself from a legislative body into a "high tribunal" of judges to hear the charges of impeachment against Federal Judge George W. English, of East St. Louis, Ill., was scheduled to begin at 2 p. m. today.

At that time the house board of managers or "prosecutors" was to appear before the senate and read the articles of impeachment.

AMUNDSEN ARRIVES AT STARTING POINT

KINGS BAY, SPITZBERGEN. April 22.—Captain Roald Amundsen and Lincoln Ellsworth have arrived here, the starting point of the flight they will attempt across the north pole in the dirigible Norge.

Crowds welcomed Amundsen and Ellsworth who came from Tromsø, Norway to make final preparations for the flight which may carry them across the pole to Point Barrow, Alaska.

LUTHERAN SOCIETY OFFICERS ARE NAMED

Following the regular devotional meeting of Lutheran Light Brigade, No. 656, Monday afternoon, installation of new officers took place.

They are: president, Sarah Jane Plison; vice president, Helen Owens; secretary, Katherine Maxwell and treasurer, Phyllis Mellage. Various committees were named by the superintendent, Miss Edna Mellage. New officers then assumed charge and the usual routine business was transacted.

For the benefit of members who were not present, the following plan is being announced for "thread day" in May. Each member is to start with ten cents as capital and after investment of the money, the returns will be brought to the May meeting. Each member will tell how they used their money as a feature of the meeting. Miss Mellage will supply further information for members.

BRIDGE-LUNCHEON FOR MRS. C. L. JOBE

Mrs. Charles L. Jobe, whose recent marriage was of interest to a large number of friends, was feted by Mrs. S. M. McKay and Mrs. Laura LeSourd, Alexander at the McKay home, W. Church St., Wednesday afternoon.

An interesting company of friends was assembled for luncheon followed by bridge. Mrs. Charles Johnson, Dayton, and Mrs. Frank Harford, Springfield, were guests from out of the city. Each table was centered with a bowl of pink sweet peas which fragrant suggested the belated arrival of Spring.

Mrs. Crowl would have reached her eightieth birthday next June. She was a resident of Bellbrook about forty years. Her husband preceded her in death October 7, 1924. Two children also preceded her and only two grandsons survive, Lawrence and Cramer Crowl, of Bellbrook.

She was a member of the M. E. Church of Bellbrook, where funeral services will be held Saturday at 2 o'clock with interment in Bellbrook Cemetery.

AVIATORS IN MIMIC AIR WARFARE PASS OVER XENIA ON WAY

First actual offensive of the American "Blue" army was launched from Wilbur Wright field, early Thursday morning, where the annual air service maneuvers are being held, against the "Reds" the mythical foes who caught the "Blues" off guard Monday with their declaration of warfare.

Thirty-three planes flew to Circleville, where the operations concentrated and participated in a sham battle with the "enemy." The foreboding purr of the planes' motors was heard in Xenia when a number passed over the city enroute to the scene of "attack."

Lines of maneuvers worked out on the attack was made along the lines of maneuvers worked out on paper during the last three days at Wright field, as having occurred in the Cincinnati area. It was deemed inadvisable Wednesday night by Gen. James E. Felt, commander of the "blue" forces to concentrate at this stage, such a large number of planes over Cincinnati. Circleville was then selected.

All four groups of the mobilized air force at Wright field, the bombardment, attack pursuit and observation, participated in the day's operations. The bombardment planes, nine in number, under command of Major L. H. Bererton, of Langley field, proceeded to Circleville on a route that carried them over Xenia.

Roscoe Fudge, near New Jasper, junior at Central High School, who has been in McClellan Hospital with measles, following an operation, is recovering nicely.

Friends of Mrs. Anna Stephens may call at the home, 21 Orange St., after 7 o'clock, Thursday evening.

Women's Missionary Society, First Presbyterian Church will hold the April meeting at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Espey, N. Detroit St., Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. H. D. Smith, Mrs. D. D. Jones and Miss Anna MacCracken will be assistant hostesses.

Officers and teachers of First Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mr. D. D. Jones, E. Church St., Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Plans will be laid for Mothers' and Children's Days, and other summer work.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Truitt, of this city, attended a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kelley, Springfield, Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Lambert, Third and Collier Sts., is critically ill, suffering from a complication of diseases.

Dr. B. R. McClellan is in Dallas, Tex., attending the meeting of the National Medical Association. He will be gone about ten days and is in attendance as one of the Ohio delegates.

OPPORTUNITY SALE CONTINUED FRIDAY

Iron with Cod Liver Oil Makes Weak Child Strong

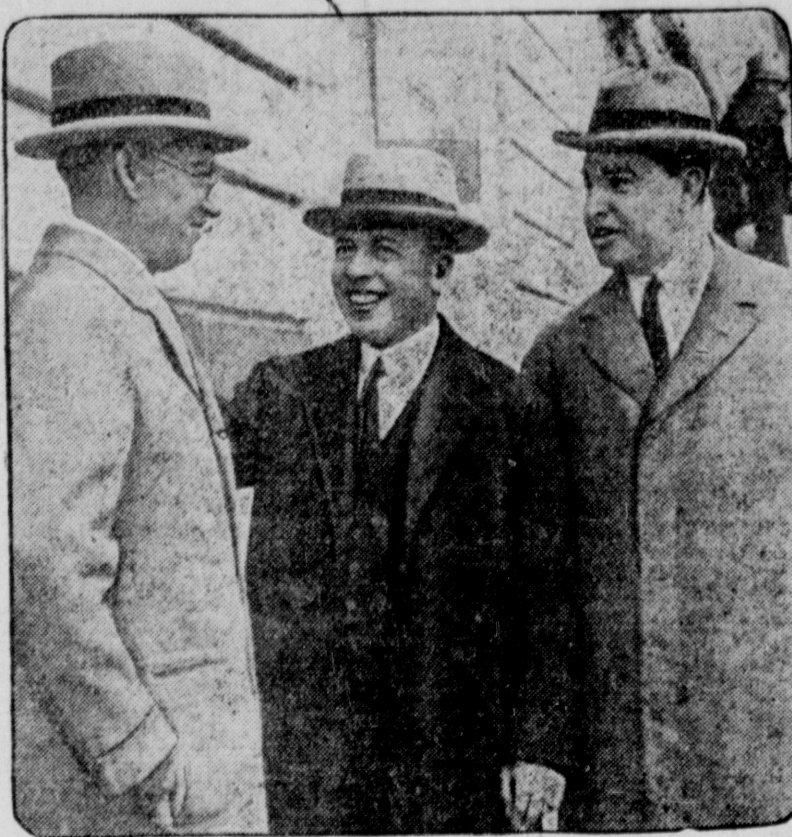

New Easy-to-Take Tablet Form Builds Him Up Quickly

When your child "outgrows his strength" or is weakened by illness he should be given remedies known as "food tonics" to rebuild solid flesh and produce rich red blood. For this purpose, physicians prescribe cod liver oil and iron.

Chemists now extract the vitamins and flesh-building elements from cod liver oil and throw the nasty, useless oil away. They combine these extracts with blood-building iron in easy-to-take tablet form.

To get the genuine, specify Burke's Cod Liver Oil and Iron Tablets at the drug store. You'll soon have cause to be proud of the sturdy, energetic, well-nourished condition of your youngster.

THE REAL THING

APRIL presents no prettier picture than that of green fields, with rustic stiles between the openings of the hedges, where old footpaths go in and out, winding along until lost in the distance; with children scattered here and there, singly or in groups, just as the daisies are, all playing or gathering flowers."

So says someone in a book devoted to beautiful descriptions of the months of the year. There is much more than is here quoted about the month with which we are just now afflicted, but it is all to the same effect, and all equally true. It tells us about children chasing butterflies, or lying prone on the grass, or filling their pinafores with beautiful flowers, etc., etc.

We have no respect for the person who wrote these lines. He did not know our month of April. He knew the poet's April, which doesn't exist anywhere except in the poet's fancy. Flowers, pinafores, butterflies, children prone on the grass! We know them not in this month of April. Hail, sleet, snow, rain—this is our portion. Increasing cold, high winds, fair and warmer, rising temperature, falling temperature—these are our lot. At night we take things in from the box just outside the window to keep them from freezing; in the morning we put them out again. We drain the alcohol from the radiator of the old bus, and then worry all night for fear the contents will be one solid cake of ice in the morning.

As a month, April isn't much, but after all perhaps the year wouldn't be complete without it.

TRY PICKING DANDELIONS

Herewith is offered a mild suggestion to persons who, while enjoying a country outing, are unable to differentiate between the beauties of a protected field of wild flowers and the desolation of a field which has been stripped and left to weeds and grass by the wayside vandals. If they must pick something which does not belong to them, let them try picking dandelions.

The flower of that ubiquitous weed, we are told, though we haven't tried it, forms the base of a potent, pleasing and inspiring beverage. The leaves, we know by experience, can form one of the most wholesome and appetizing vegetable dishes known to modern cookery. It is the spinach with a kick.

And no one will begrudge their passing. Vandals may exercise their most destructive inclination against the dandelion. Tear them up, root and branch. Bedeck the automobile with them. Throw them into a boiling caldron. Serve them with oil or vinegar. Eat them alive. Do your worst to the dandelion. But let the wild flowers live.

LAUGHTER

A WELL KNOWN anecdote relates of a man who went to a physician for relief from melancholia. When the physician recommended that his patient go and see George L. Fox, world famous clown and originator of Humpty Dumpty, the patient said, "I am Fox." An equivalent story is told of the great clown Grimaldi and of Domenico, the jester to the French king.

This same role of sadness wearing the garb of wit and humor was played more recently by Mark Twain as he discloses himself in his own recently published biography. In his story of his own life this greatest of American humorists wrote:

"A myriad of men are born; they labor, sweat and struggle for bread; They squabble and scold and fight; they scramble for little mean advantages over each other; age creeps upon them; infirmities follow and humiliations bring down their pride; and their vanities; those they love are taken from them, and the joy of life is turned to aching grief. The burden of pain, care and misery grows heavier year by year; at length ambition is dead, pride is dead, longing for release comes in their place. It comes at last—the only unpoisoned gift earth ever had for them, and they vanish from the world where they were of no consequence; where they achieved nothing; where they were a mistake and a failure and a foolishness; where they left no sign that they existed—a world which will lament them for a day and forget them forever. Then another myriad takes their place and copies all they did—to make room for another and another and a million other myriads, to follow the same arid path through the same desert and to accomplish what the first myriad and all the myriads that came after it accomplished—nothing!"

Mark Twain was an invalid during many years of his life and his thoughts were sorrowful and yet he continued to make the rest of the world laugh. Fox, Grimaldi and Domenico were sad men bearing more than their share of the world's troubles, yet they, like Mark Twain, made others laugh. There is no doubt that in making others laugh these immortal humorists made life more cheerful for themselves. Laughter is the only thing that is both contagious and healthful.

Remove roll-shades, brush them out of doors, and set aside till room is clean. Strip beds, and cover springs with a sheet after cleaning thoroughly. Now wipe ceiling and walls with clean cloths (use a broom covered with a bag for ceiling). Wash woodwork. Wash windows. Clean radiator. Renew or clean floor finish. Wash bureau mirror. Polish all furniture.

Replace rugs, wall pictures, small ornaments. Put up shades and clean curtains.

The above suggestions are for cleaning bedrooms. But the same general process is followed in cleaning any room in the house. In homes where soft or semi-soft coal has been used in the winter, it is wisest to clean the cellar before the first-floor rooms—otherwise the cellar dust may sift up through the floor again. (To remove dust from a cement cellar floor, scatter wet sawdust or damp bits of newspaper around and sweep up).

CAMPAIGN INCIDENT OF 1840

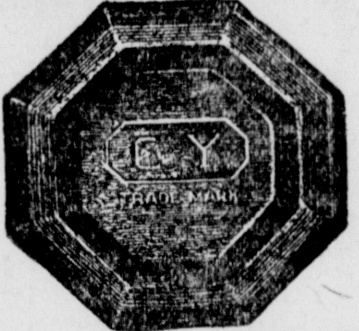

Campaign of 1840, known in political annals of the county as the "Log Cabin and Hard Cider" campaign, was one of the most remarkable recorded in the history of the United States.

General William Henry Harrison affectionately called "Old Tip" by Whigs because he defeated the Indians single-handed at Tippecanoe in 1811 and John Tyler were the candidates.

With great enthusiasm in the settlements where hard cider, corn pone and "Johnny" cakes were dispensed with liberal hands at Whig barbecues. Log cabins, indicative of the democratic antecedents of the general, were placed on wheels and trundled about by the Whigs at political rallies, speeches and conventions.

Sugarcreek Twp., then a strong Whig community, was busy with demonstrations. As the time neared for a great Whig demonstration in Dayton in 1840, influential politicians decided the township would evince its support of "Old Tip" in a unique manner.

They built a gigantic canoe, mounted it on wheels and decorated it to serve as a fitting emblem to represent Sugarcreek Twp. Whigs at the convention. When finished it was forty feet long, twenty-six inches deep and three feet wide. Craft was painted, red, white and blue and contained twenty-four seats.

The day before the convention it was placed on a large wagon and flag poles raised. Six horses were hitched to the wagon, each equipped with a full set of bells. Twenty four women were seated.

When the canoe passed the grand stand of General Harrison, who attended the convention, he waved his hand in recognition, and while shouts went up on all sides for "Old Tip," the girls sang Whig songs.

After the return home, the flags and banners, painted by Jesse Sanders, were stored in the loft at the home of Henry Harmon, later owned by Mrs. S. O. Hale. Sr. Canoe had served its purpose and was launched on the Little Miami River at Harner's mills, where it was used as a ferry for years.

Now all the day long The bird warbled his song Not dreaming of evil Or thinking of wrong; He twittered and sang On the branch of the tree With never a fear Of the skillemaree.

Now the skillemaree, Just as sly as could be, Crawled slowly one day To the foot of the tree And was ready to spring On that poor little bird When the strangest and loudest

SUPPOSED LEADERS ARE FINDING BUMPY TRACKS TO PENNANT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
NEW YORK, April 22.—After one week of surprising baseball, the standing in the major leagues presents a problem of what has happened to the "world's" champion Pittsburgh Pirates and the Philadelphia Athletics.

In response to an inquiry Bill McKelvie and Connie Mack, probably would reply:

"Nothing 'Just give us time.'"

With the exception of the Pirates the National League teams followed form in getting away from what has been the tightest race yet.

McGraw's Giants feasted on Brooklyn and Boston, while the Pirates have been forced to meet the stiff competition of the strong western clubs.

There doesn't seem to be anything organically wrong with the Pittsburgh team and it will be recalled it is not a quick starting club like the Giants.

The Cincinnati Reds, getting the finest of pitching, loom now as more of a threat than they were considered in the pre-season drive and the St. Louis Cardinals are living up to expectations.

With the Athletics in seventh place and the Browns in the hole, the American League is all turned around.

The Yankees, the Tigers and the Indians in a tie for first place present an unusual situation. The Yankees and the Tigers look to be contenders, but the Indians are setting a pace that they can hardly expect to maintain.

Ty Cobb seems to have corrected any field weakness which has kept the club out of the running for several seasons, and if the pitchers hold up the club will have to be feared.

The Yankees, with the greatest bunch of hitters that could be desired, have turned from a possibility into the favorite for the pennant, with the Washington Senators becoming a very serious doubt.

HOLD DECLAMATION CONTEST AT CHURCH HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

Contest in "The Crusade for a Warless World," under the auspices of the Ohio Council of Churches, will be held at First Baptist Church, Xenia, Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. R. E. Brown, announced Thursday.

The contest is in line with the state-wide movement sponsored by the Ohio Council of Churches, to bring before the people the tragedy of war. Twenty-one articles on war have been written by statesmen and scholars, including President Coolidge. These will be declaimed by high school boys and girls of the state in this contest.

Most of the contests will be held over the state next Sunday night. Others will be held the following Sunday. A system of awards has been arranged the prize winner in the local contest to receive a bronze medal.

The local contestant will compete in the county contest, the winner to receive a silver medal. The county winner will compete in the district contest and a gold medal will be awarded this winner. Winner in the state contest to be held the latter part of June will be awarded a college education and the Xenia.

Judges of the Xenia contest will be H. C. Penlry, city superintendent of schools; Spencer Shank, principal of Central High School and Miss Margaret Wead, secretary of Greene County Red Cross.

The local contest is open to the public and anyone interested is urged to attend, without regard to church preference.

HAD BREAKING OUT OF PIMPLES
On Face, Neck and Chest.
Healed by Cuticura.

For about a year I was troubled with a breaking out of pimples on my face, neck and chest. The skin was red and sore and I could hardly sleep at night because of the irritation. My clothing aggravated the breaking out on my chest and my face was disfigured.

I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after the first day I used it I got relief. Then I purchased more and in about two months I was completely healed, after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment. SHEIK IN MAJORITY AMONG CRIMINALS IN PENITENTIARY

COLUMBUS, April 22.—"Little hair polished rats," is the new name Warden Preston E. Thomas, of Ohio Penitentiary, has applied to the prevalent type of young, thick-stick man, or "cake-eater murderer."

"These days it's different," declares the Warden, who is one of the "oldtimers" in prison work. "The first thing these young fellows do is to get a gun. They intend to use it. They don't depend on their skill or their wit or their physical strength—not these little hair-polished rats."

This new type of criminal is predominating at all of the prisons in America, Warden Thomas believes. Hardness and lack of sympathy of these "dude killers" is almost unbelievable, according to the Ohio

Sore Throat Stopped In 15 Minutes

A remarkable new prescription, for sore throat, known as Thoxine, is guaranteed to relieve the most irritating, painful throat in fifteen minutes or it costs you nothing. Works on different principle. Not a gargle. Thoxine goes direct to the condition that causes the sore throat or cough—kills the germs, stops fever, chilliness and achiness, and quickly drives it all out of the system. One swallow is all that's needed. Stops night coughing almost instantly. No chloroform or other harmful drugs. 35c, 60c and $1.00.—All druggists.

DEAF HEAR INSTANTLY

Amazing Invention Brings Immediate Relief To Those Who Are Deaf

A wonderful invention which enables the hard of hearing to hear all sounds as clearly and distinctly as a child, has been perfected by the Dictograph Products Corporation, Suite 2946, 14 East Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill. There is no waiting, no delay, no danger, but quick, positive, instantaneous results—you hear instantly. So positive are the cures that everyone who is hard of hearing will be amazed and delighted with this remarkable invention, the Acousticon, that they are offering to send it absolutely free for ten days' trial. No deposit—no C. O. D.—no obligation whatever. If you suffer, take advantage of their liberal free trial offer. Send them your name and address today.

IS EVERY DAY A BACKACHE DAY?

XENIA FOLKS HAVE FOUND THE CAUSE AND CORRECTED IT

Is your back lame and achy? Are you tortured with sharp, rheumatic pains; miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities? No wonder, then, you feel worn-out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? You should! Weak kidneys cause just such troubles. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Here's a Xenia case.

Frank Kerns, 431 W. Market St., says: "A constant, ache across my kidneys made me miserable. Mornings the muscles of my back were stiff and sore and I couldn't stir about easily until I had limbered up. My kidneys were disordered and I had to pass the secretions too often. I was also troubled with headaches and dizzy spells. But the use of Doan's Pills brought the desired relief."

warden. "They are an enigma to prison officials and older criminals alike," he says.

"The old-time safe blower or burglar," explains the warden, "took the greatest pains not to have a dangerous weapon on his person. He didn't want to kill. He didn't have a gun or even a large knife. He wanted to be able to prove to the police, if he was caught that he had not intended to kill."

This new type of young criminal, however, is described by Warden Thomas, as "young men who have lost their 'feelers,' and as being 'without mercy, pity, and sympathy; without love, fair play or any of the other attributes that come from emotion.'"

Warden Thomas is not of the opinion that these young bandits learned their "trade" as soldiers in the late war. On the contrary, he finds that "seventy young men who entered prison between the ages of 15 and 16 years weren't soldiers during the war; they didn't learn banditry, stealing and killing over in France."

Asked the direct question: "What is the matter with most of them?" Warden Thomas replied that very few of the meyer had any home life whatsoever.

"They're damned young" is another succinct reason given by the warden for the waywardness of the "hair-polished rats."

Brilliant and highly colored circus posters throughout countryside proclaim the coming of the Carl Hagenbeck-Great Wallace Circus to Dayton for afternoon and night performances May 1. Hagenbeck-Wallace is known universally as the "Highest Class Circus on Earth."

Stop Losing Flesh And Grow Fat Quick

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile and enjoy life right now for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on hosts of skinny folks every day.

One woman, tired, weak and discouraged, put on fifteen pounds in five weeks and now feels fine. We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of vitalizing flesh producing vitamins, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste and because it often upsets the stomach.

McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets are as easy to take as candy and if any thin person doesn't gain at least five pounds in thirty days your druggist is authorized to give you your money back—and only 60 cents for 60 tablets. Ask Sayre & Hemphill or any druggist.

C. A. DEVOE ELECTED SUPERINTENDENT OF JEFFERSON SCHOOL

C. A. Devoe, for the past two years, superintendent of Lees-creek Centralized School, Clinton County and former Greene County district superintendent, was elected superintendent of Bowersville Centralized School, Jefferson Twp., Wednesday night.

He was elected to the local position by the Jefferson Twp. Board of Education to succeed P. C. Milnor, who had not applied for the position for the coming year. His reasons were not announced.

Superintendent Devoe was district school superintendent in Greene County seven years. He will assume the Bowersville superintendency the first of the next school year and will move to Bowersville in the near future.

Superintendent Devoe will receive a degree from Wilmington College this Spring, in advanced education.

LIMA SCHOOLS WILL CONTINUE TO JUNE

LIMA, O., April 22.—Assurance that the public schools of Lima will continue in operation until the regular closing late in June has been given by the board of education.

In anticipation of collection of back taxes, following the certification of the Baxter Law petitions, the board has voted to borrow $236,000 which will be sufficient to finish the present term.

A. Y. D.

Motordom is more or less agog over one manufacturer's innovation in quoting prices a. y. d. instead of f. o. b.—the new symbol meaning "at your door." In short, delivered prices instead of prices at the factory plus freight and other charges.

Stock insurance has followed the a. y. d. system for many decades. A stock insurance policy costs so much delivered; you pay your premium and that's an end on't. It's the "at cost" price which quotes its policy prices on the f. o. b. basis. So much for the policy; when the bust comes you add on the freight and other charges and tot up to discover just what "at cost" does mean.

To buy an automobile for $1,000 f. o. b. and find it costs $200 more to get it to your door is not as bad as buying a policy f. o. b. and finding that the "factory" is a scattered list of subscribers who decline to make delivery without litigation. The moral is: Insure through representative local agents and get stock insurance a. y. d.

SPOILED CHILD MAKES NEUROTIC ADULT MEDICAL MEETING TOLD

DALLAS, Tex., April 21.—Hys- ing indulgence of fond parents in al- lowing the youngster to desire his- teria in adults is largely due to the goal by "throwing a tantrum." Dr. M. S. Gregory told his associates in the seventy-seventh annual con- vention of the American Medical Association here today.

"If the baby gets what it wants by a tantrum it will react when grown up in the same manner—a condition the individual cannot control," Dr. Gregory said. "If the child has been trained to meet real- ity, then as an adult, he or she will meet reality and remain well."

Pointed statements from other speakers on the opening program of eight scientific sections of the association which got under way today, bore out the oft-repeated ad- monition—see the physician first.

Infections of the eyes, otitis me- diae, the "kickbacks" from infections and diseased sections elsewhere on the body, eye specialists pointed out. Irritation of an infected area drives the harmful germ into the blood and it is carried to the eye tissues.

Injection of chemicals and eye- substances directly into the veins to combat boils, abscesses and similar growths has benefited hun- dreds of patients, Dr. Hugh Young of Baltimore told the surgical sec- tion.

High blood pressure may be suc- cessfully combated by the injection of a liver extract prepared from fresh liver tissues and puri- fied according to Dr. A. A. James and associates, in the Pharmacology and Therapeutics division. On the other hand, Dr. Ralph Majors of Kansas City describes the use of a substance called "guanadine" as an elevator of blood pressure. While yet in the comparative experimental stage, Dr. Majors was confi- dent that the treatment would tend to ward off senility's effects.

The high mortality rate among cancer sufferers results largely from procrastination, according to Dr. George B. Eusterman of the Mayo Clinic. More than fifty per- cent of the cancer fatalities result because the sufferer has waited too long to consult a physician and to undergo an operation, Eusterman declared. He also pointed out that sixty-five percent of the cancer pa-

MRS. COOLIDGE BUSY REARRANGING WHITE HOUSE FURNISHINGS

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Slow- ly, and with care and deliberation, Mrs. Coolidge is rearranging the White House interior to conform to the aesthetic standards of mod- ern palatial residences.

The conglomeration of furniture, accumulated through numerous re- gimes and marked with the individ- uality of many purchasers, has long been a source of concern to White House residents. Last year a group of interior decorators characteriz- ed the arrangement of the White House as "hideous" and recom- mended scrapping of half of the furni- ture.

Shortly afterward Congress passed a resolution, probably instigated at the White House, allowing the President to accept furniture for the Executive mansion. Although Mrs. Coolidge has not yet taken ad- vantage of this privilege she is ex- pected to as soon as a definite plan can be laid down for refurbishing the House.

Every day in the meanwhile some change is made in the arrange- ment of furniture and ever so often, some cumbersome piece of furni- ture incongruous with the ensemble disappears into the White House basement.

Rumors that Mrs. Coolidge will issue a call for period furniture to furnish the White House have been denied. Mrs. Coolidge has no de- sire to completely renovate the Executive Mansion, it was said; she merely wishes to rearrange the interior so as to make it more pleasing to the eye. There is too much furniture in the rooms now, it was explained. However, after the useless and ugly furnishings have been relegated Mrs. Coolidge may take advantage of the numer- ous offers of valuable furniture al- ready made.

XXV. THE BRIDGE

You have seen pictures of wrest- lers doing the bridge, with their bodies raised off the mat, support- ed by their feet and head. This ex- ercise will put you into a similar position.

Position: Lying on back, feet flexed, with heels near seat. Arms folded across chest.

Exercise: Raise body off floor, forming a bridge, resting on feet and top of head or shoulders.

Your lower back will form a per- fect arch if this is performed cor- rectly. On each attempt to raise yourself, try to go up and back a little farther, until you are resting on the top of your head. The first time you will probably only get up upon the top of your back, but eventually you should be able to be resting on the soles of your feet and the top of your head.

Rest a little after this exercise before taking your run-down or both. Tomorrow you will be taught the Pendulum.

TODAY'S INSTALLMENT

V—MY NICE YOUNG MAN

I've always loved a Paul Jones. I like joining hands in the big circle, and then going around in a "grand right and left," pausing an instant to touch hands with the men going in the opposite direction, and then stopping suddenly when the whistle blows and dancing with the nearest man. There is such an element of ad- vement in it, especially when you don't know any of the men with me that night at the club.

The little red-haired girl who was dancing with the nice man I'd had my eye on didn't want to join in the Paul Jones; she quite protested when he insisted on joining the circle. I didn't blame her! I wouldn't have wanted to throw him into that melting pot, either! I dared to hope that he wouldn't have cared to join it if I had been his partner in the dance before.

The master of ceremonies had us do some rather pretty figures in the circle before he gave the signal for the grand right and left. I glanced out of the corner of my eye; my nice young man—at least I hoped he was going to be mine!—was just across from me. Would I get that far before the whistle blew?

The first signal was given. We started, the girls going in one direction, the men in the other. How slowly everyone moved! Surely the whistle would blow too soon. I looked for my man, and saw that he was looking toward me. My heart beat faster—apparently he had something the same notion as I. I looked again. Then the master of ceremonies lifted his whistle. Good gracious—I was going to have to dance with the wrong man.

But my nice young dark-haired man was resourceful. He delib- erately skipped two girls, as the whistle blew, and caught me in his arms, when another man had al- ready taken my hand.

The other man was furious, but my new partner tossed back an apology.

"Be kind—I simply had to dance with Miss Larrabee," he said.

We danced for a moment in silence. His step was perfectly suited to mine; I loved the way he danced. When the music stopped for a moment I looked up at him curiously.

"Of course I'd like to know how you know him," I told him.

He laughed delightedly. He must be even younger than I had thought—not much older than I, probably. What a relief after Frank Har- rison!

"I'll show you," he answered, and drew me into a corner of the ball- room. Taking out a flat cigarette case, he drew from it a crumpled piece of newspaper, evidently cut from the rotogravure section. He unfold- ed it carefully.

My own face looked up at me. It was a picture that had been forgot all about everything but this nice boy beside me, who was im- petuously demanding my address and telephone number. He looked as if he knew how to play—and it was so long since I'd known any one like that!

He told me that he was a naval architect and helped to design yachts, and liked it better than any- thing else in the world—"except being with you, Nancy," and might he come to see me very soon?

We stayed there a long time, long enough so that when we went back to the ballroom, the cute red-haired girl was furious, and Frank Har- rison was glowering.

"Sorry I kept your daughter so long, Mr. Larrabee," Nick said apologetically. "We were having a reunion—we're old friends."

"Oh, how very young I must look for you to think I'm Mr. Harrison's daughter," I exclaimed, avoiding the murderous look in Frank Harrison's eyes. "Now run along, Nick—Frank and I are going to have a reunion of our own."

Mr. Harrison had asked me to call him by his first name, and I'd thought I never could. But it was the only thing I could think of that would avert a storm in that mo- ment—and it worked. I don't know how Nick made peace with his red-head.
